MASTER'S FORUM

Brethren:

As we start a new year at Discovery Lodge I would like to thank the elected and appointed Brethren who stepped up and accepted the positions. I believe my job will be much easier and that the Lodge is in good hands with the present slate of officers. Thanks Brethren for your commitment.

I would also like to thank WB Rideout, the Officers and Brethren of Hiram Lodge for continuing the long-standing tradition of conferring our degree in May. This is a great tradition and I look forward to a wonderful degree & reciprocating next year. After our darkness we will be holding a Board of General Purposes meeting. At this meeting we will discuss whether or not to hold a BoGP on a regular basis. Also. a discussion on feasibility of appointing investigation permanent committee. It would consist of permanent & appointed Brethren. As well we will discuss should we institute the Six Step Program to Initiation. Please consider volunteering for one of these positions should we move forward with them.

Finally, I thank all the Brethren of Discovery Lodge for the opportunity to serve you as the Worshipful Master. It is a big responsibility as well as an honour and with the help and encouragement of the officers and Brethren of the Lodge I will endeavour to maintain the high standards set by my predecessors. Fraternally,

Wor. Bro. Wardell
