MASTER'S FORUM

Brethren

I would like to first offer holiday greetings to all the members of our Fraternity and their families from myself and the Discovery Lodge Officers. I hope you are all able to spend time with your loved ones and friends during the holidays.

This is also a time of the year when we are reminded of our lessons of charity and I encourage those Brethren, who are able, to contribute to those areas that are important to them.

The Christmas Season is an opportunity for Masons to lead by example as we remain focused on family, Brotherly Love & Charity. Others, both within and without the Fraternity, will observe our actions and be reminded as well of the true spirit of Christmas and its deep and powerful meanings.

For Masons this is always a busy time of year for the Craft and I do appreciate all the hard work by our Discovery Lodge Brethren both in and out of the Lodge Room. Your efforts do make a big contribution to the success of our
