MASTER'S FORUM

Happy New Year to all the members of our Fraternity and their families from myself and the Discovery Lodge Officers. I hope that 2013 is filled with happiness and prosperity for each of you.

Brethren January is traditionally a time for change and we see a flurry of resolutions to do this and change that. We, as Masons however, do not change things lightly or easily. We also do not change them often. Our craft is based upon traditions and as one of the oldest institutions in existence we deeply value our traditions. As I review the labours of Discovery Lodge for 2012 I believe that we Brethren have been very successful in maintaining our traditions and rituals but at the same time moving our Lodge forward into these modern times. Our thriving and ever increasing membership may be one of the best measures of our success in 2012.

All people around the globe embrace each New Year with hope, enthusiasm and optimism and, for Masons, it is no different. Well, there is one difference for, as Masons, we greet the New Year and look to the future. We are knowledgeable in our past and confident that the tools, work and practices of Freemasonry will

Dear Brother,
