MASTER'S FORUM

Greetings Brethren.

Between our regular winter storms small hints of spring are beginning to take hold. There truly is no greater season than this to display nature in both its fury and gentle kindness. There is so much about Masonry, and the benefits derived from it, that are like those hints of spring. They are subtle and hard to define, yet almost without notice you discover you have come to think, or feel, or have an eye towards something deeper and more profound. These benefits come from engaging oneself in Masonry. This is not only achieved by attending Lodge regularly although, of course, such involvement is encouraged. Taking the time to meet and talk with well informed Brethren, or to read on the subject of Masonry can foster the same growth. Our minds, bodies and spirits are like gardens - things grown where we apply our intention and effort. Masonry gives us the tools to work with and helpful designs to inspire us. How can we do anything but benefit from such influences?

Fraternally yours,

Wor.Bro. James Hormoth
Worshipful Master
