MASTER'S FORUM

Brethren on the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month, we will remember. We will remember the sacrifice and the price that was paid for the freedom we all enjoy, and while the numbers of those who fought the battles in the air, on the seas and on the ground grows smaller, their legacy looms larger each year.

Remembrance Day will be marked in many different ways, there will be presentations, speeches & music, but many will simply stand in silence to honour those who gave everything in defence of their country and the fight against tyranny.

Regardless of the way it is marked we can continue to pay our veterans the highest honour their due, by continuing to value the freedom they gave us, the freedom of speech, freedom of association, freedom to vote, study, work travel and pray as we choose and by remembering.

We still count among our Brothers in Discovery Lodge those who have served in the past, and in very recent times, their Queen and Country in our Armed Forces and it is in their honor that we will remember.

Brethren, not only will we remember but we will celebrate our Brothers who, by their achievements and valor, still inspire us individually

Dear Brother,

I have been directed by the Worshipful Master to request your attendance at the meetings of Discovery Lodge #149 A.F. & A.M. as indicated.....
