MASTER'S FORUM

Brethren:

As October draws to a close there is no doubt that fall is upon us. The cool nights, the coloured, falling leaves. But the weather is still good. So I hope everyone can get outside and enjoy what's left of the nice weather. We all know the wind and rain is fast approaching.

On the 7th of October at our regular business meeting. The ballot for initiation proved favourable for Mr. Cavanaugh. So on the 21st at our emergent meeting we conferred his EA degree. As I watched and listened to his excitement afterwards I was reminded of my own initiation. As I'm sure we all remember the time and place where we were brought to Masonic Light. Thank you to everyone who helped make his night so memorable.

On the 4th of November it looks like we will have an EA doing his prove-up. If so we will confer the FC degree on the 18th of the month. So I will likely be looking for help with some of the work.

On a different note. Over the years we have put a lot of Brothers through the three degrees. Where are they? As a sponsor your duty to a new brother does not end when he is raised. Invite him out to lodge with you, or call him and find out how he's doing. Stay in touch with him and offer him encouragement to stay active in the lodge.

As everyone knows Nov 11th is Remembrance Day. Please join me at the cenotaph in Campbell River. To honour our fallen soldiers and those who gave up their lives for our freedom and way of life.

Lest We Forget.

Yours Fraternally

Wor. Bro. Bob Lowe
