MASTER'S FORUM:

Greetings Brethren:

October is drawing to a close and once again our streets will be filled with witches and goblins. As always at this time of year and rain and fog make for poor visibility when driving about, please take care on the 31st so that everyone has a safe and Happy Halloween.

As November draws near my thoughts turn to the 11th hour of the 11th day and to my father who fought in Europe in WW2. Let us remember the sacrifice of those who paid with their lives and of those who were forever tormented with the remembrance of war. Let us also keep in our prayers those young Canadians whom we have once again asked to fight tyranny in the world. Discovery Lodge will again place a wreath at the Cenotaph in Campbell River please join me in Remembrance.

Lest we forget.

Fraternally

Ian Spinks
