MASTER'S FORUM

Brethren All:

Discovery Lodge will be represented at the Cenotaph again this year and as many of us do each November 11th we'll be paying our respect to all those who fought for our freedom. We live in a country where freedom is a way of life, we must never take that for granted and should always remember; "In Flanders Fields where Poppies grow".

We will be emulating an EA degree this month. I have heard it said that it's better to cancel meetings than to do a degree for the sake of doing one, but even we as Masons need to practise our skills if we are to be confident and proficient. Discovery Lodge has a tradition of doing good ritual work and the Past Masters and Brethren of our Lodge have set the bar high by the quality of their work. We have several new officers who are on a steep learning curve and several vacancies that still need to be filled. The work of being part of a Lodge doesn't end when you become a MM, really it's just starting. For those who have yet to do your MM prove up, I would like to offer an opportunity for you to accomplish this final act of becoming a MM. While it may seem to be a daunting and arduous task, it can be done and the officers of this lodge, are here to help. When you read your Lodge notice you will see that we meet on the Sunday before lodge, at 7:00 pm, to set up and practise, you are welcome to come out and join us. Get involved, take the first step and show your interest.

Bill Rogers, Worshipful Master
