MASTER'S FORUM

Greetings Brethren,

The sands of time continue to flow and here it is October already. A month that displays itself beautifully in the North Island and I hope many of you get an opportunity to spend some time outside and enjoy what the architect has provided for us in our corner of the world.

The raising of Bro. Ergin at our September emergent meeting was a special evening and thanks to all the Brethren who were involved. I am looking forward to our emergent meeting in October when we will be conferring the E.A. Degree.

I would ask Brethren to think about Brothers who they have not seen in the Lodge Room lately and ask you to call out to them to invite them to join you in attending Lodge. It seems to be too easy in these busy times to begin to miss those activities that mean so much to us and too difficult to rejoin them. It may only take a fraternal call from a Brother to re-ignite that passion for the Craft.

I will end with a quote from Wor.Bro.George W. Speth dated 1892. Despite its age it still rings true...

practice our three grand principals of Brother Love, Relief and Truth. – WM G. Speth

Yours Fraternally

Wor.Bro. Doug Smith
Worshipful Master

We meet for the purpose of admitting members to our fellowship, to instruct them in the lessons of Free Masonry and to strengthen each other in our adherence there to. We meet to hand down to succeeding generations the knowledge and practice of certain ceremonies which we have ourselves inherited from our Masonic ancestors and can be traced to the remotest antiquity. Lastly we meet to

Bethel #29 News

Senior Princess, Kelsey Reid's project this term will be Chocolate Sales. The girls will be at one of your meetings so please look out for them as I'm sure you'll enjoy the yummy chocolates they have.

Before long we'll be into poinsettia sales – yes believe it or not Christmas is “a comin”. So watch your Lodge Digest for further information.

Of course the “clothing drive” continues. Although it is called a clothing drive they will take most household items i.e. dishes, bedding and cutlery & these can be boxed. Either give a Jobie a call to pick up the items or call Mrs. Eveline Newman (250-914-2295) to arrange a pick up or to drop off items. This project is truly amazing in that it raises fund to send our Daughters to their Grand Session which is very expensive. The girls do pay a small amount towards Session but it is difficult for some single parents who have two or three girls in the Bethel to afford the total amount.
