MASTER'S FORUM:

Greetings Brethren:

The last weekend of summer has past and our neighbourhoods are busy preparing for the change of season, as we put away our summer clothes I hope that your business suit is ready, for Lodges and Concordant Bodies as they come out of darkness. On this theme a welcome back breakfast was organized this September by Brothers Erickson, Maclagan and Spry. This breakfast was well attended and it presented some of the many avenues in Masonry. My thanks to those Brothers and a hope that it can become an annual event.

This October we have petitions for initiation and affiliation, with successful reports from committees we will ballot and hopefully confer a degree.

I am looking forward to seeing everyone again, please think about Brothers who we have not seen in the Lodge Room, call and invite them to join you at Lodge it might rekindle their interest for the Craft.

Fraternally

Ian Spinks
