MASTER'S FORUM

Brethren All:

We are well into a new season of Masonry. The first business meeting was well attended and as your Master I welcomed the direction from the Brethren. We witnessed an EAM prove up that was well done and is probably one of the most difficult parts of becoming a Mason. We still need to work at funding our Lodge and Temple and trying to find ways to earn revenue from our building. Our stand alone Temple is the foundation of not just the Craft Lodge but for all the concordant bodies as well. There is so much value derived from our Temple, the brotherly love, friendship and goodness that comes from the various meetings is beyond measure. We cannot exist without the dues paid by our Brethren! However, if you have fallen on hard times and find it difficult to pay your dues, or if you feel to be distressed and need help then contact us and we will assist. There are ways we can help you to remain a Mason in good standing. Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth are not just words to be memorized in a lecture, they are a promise to all Masons that we are here to Help, Aid and Assist each other. Please note that your 2016 dues are payable before Dec. 31. I hope this text is received with the same good intentions with which it was written.

Bill Rogers
