MASTER'S FORUM:

Greetings Brethren:

As the days get shorter and the temperature starts to cool I trust everyone has had an enjoyable summer. Labour Day Monday will soon be upon us which marks one week until our first meeting of the fall. The summer has been busy with our temple association having a carpenter work on the building face lift. Work is still in progress but should be finished prior to our September 8th meeting. The Temple Assoc. bar committee has also been quite active with a bar almost every second weekend. One occasion saw Brother Gord Letkeman say I do! Congratulations to Gord & Tami & thanks to W. Bro. Storrie & Bro. Sherlow for their efforts.

There will not be an emergent meeting in September but fortunately we do have some candidates in the offing & should be able to carry out degree work in October & November.

This September 6th marks a special occasion with the Ceremony for the Institution of Qualicum Lodge No. 197, which is being held in the East Room of the Qualicum Beach Civic Centre, 747 Jones Street, Qualicum Beach, at 10:00 am. This is an opportunity to see a lodge receive its charter, I hope Discovery Lodge #149 is well represented as we welcome 197 to District 22, see you there.

Ian Spinks

Worshipful Master
