

You've Been ELFED!

The Christmas Elf has come to town,
To leave a surprise, I see you have found.

Spread some holiday cheer,
By spoiling others that are near.

First, post this "elf" where all can see and
Leave it posted until Christmas Eve.

Next, arrange two gifts with two notes like this,
Deliver to two others who the elf has missed.

Another Christmas tradition has begun.
Thanks for sharing this holiday fun!

Merry Christmas!

Cut along this line, and hang the elf in your window so others know you have already been "Elfed"!
