Tips:

- Communicate often with the NPD. She should know all events you plan on attending and receive post-event report.
- Business cards are helpful for handing out your information, or using the backs to write down the contact information of potential sponsors, candidates, or others you want to stay in contact with.
- When traveling, study and research the news on where you are going. It is important understand current Slovak and Czech events and how they may effect conversation.
- Keep you kroj as clean as when you competed. Make sure you don’t “cut corners” always wear full kroj.
- You sometimes have to juggle a conversation and a group of people snapping candid photos of you. Do your best to be polite and accommodate everyone. Not everyone knows if they are allowed to take a picture with you
- Not everyone knows about our wonderful pageant. Be prepared to explain your title several times, sometimes more than once to each person, to those who ask or look puzzled.
- Don’t be afraid to get outside you “bubble.” If you want to travel to a place you have never been, people are very inviting and you can find a ride or host home pretty much anywhere.
- Thank you cards: bring blank ones on your trips. You never know when someone will do something nice. Also, be sure to thank the people who invite you to their events or house you.
