Opening Prayer

Lord of Lords, illumine our hearts this day, that we may feel your glory and live into the hope to which you have called us. Renew in us the power of your Spirit to strengthen us from day to day. Nourish us by your Word that we may leave from here with all goodness and power to face the coming week, through Jesus Christ our lord now and forever. Amen.

Opening Hymn #554 Let All Things Now Living

Young Disciples

Call to confession God is here. Trusting in God's grace, Let us confess our sufferings, our losses, our pain, our sins. Join me, as we pray together, saying,

Prayer of Confession

Eternal God, whose covenant with us is never broken, we confess that we fail to fulfill your will. Though you have bound yourself to us, we will not bind ourselves to you. In Jesus Christ you serve us freely, but we refuse your love and withhold ourselves from others. We do not love you fully or love one another as you command. Restore us to your heart this day and forevermore. Amen.

Words of Assurance: Friends, the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting. believe the good news of the gospel, in Jesus Christ we are forgiven. Amen!

Gloria Patri #579 Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be; world without end, amen. Amen.

Affirmation of Faith Apostle's Creed I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ his only son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Closing Hymn I Come to the Garden

Benediction

Choral Closing/Postlude

Hymns

Let All Things Now Living

Let all things now living a song of thanksgiving to God our Creator triumphantly raise; who fashioned and made us, protected and stayed us, by guiding us onto the end of our days.

God's banners are o'er us pure light goes before us, a pillar of fire shining forth in the night: Till shadows have vanished, all fearfulness banished, as forward we travel from light into Light.

By law God enforces, the stars in their courses, the sun in its orbit obediently shine; the hills and the mountains, the rivers and fountains, the depths of the ocean proclaim God divine. We, too, should be voicing our love and rejoicing with glad adoration, a song let us raise:

Till all things now living unite in thanksgiving, to God in the highest, hosanna and praise.

In the Garden

I come to the garden alone, while the dew is still on the roses; and the voice I hear, falling on my ear, the Son of God discloses.

Refrain: And He walks with me, and he talks with me, and he tells me I am his own; and the joy we share as we tarry there, none other has ever known.

He speaks, and the sound of his voice is so sweet the birds hush their singing; and the melody that he gave to me within my heart is ringing.

Refrain: And He walks with me, and he talks with me, and he tells me I am his own; and the joy we share as we tarry there, none other has ever known.

I'd stay in the garden with Him tho' the night around me be falling; but He bids me go, thro' the voice of woe; His voice is calling to me.

Refrain: And He walks with me, and he talks with me, and he tells me I am his own; and the joy we share as we tarry there, none other has ever known.
