Prelude

Welcome/Announcements/celebrations/concerns

Choral Opening

Be still, for the presence of the Lord, the Holy One is here.
Come bow before him now, with reverence and fear.
In him no sin is found; we stand on holy ground.
Be still, for the presence of the Lord, the Holy One is here.
Be still, for the power of the Lord is moving in this place.
He comes to cleanse and heal, to minister his grace.
No work too hard for him; in faith receive from him.
Be still, for the power of the Lord is moving in this place.

Call to Worship

God is our refuge and our strength

An ever present help in trouble

Be still and know that God is here. The Lord Almighty is with us
The God of Jacob is our fortress. We will worship our God

Opening Prayer

In this hour O God, remind us that there are those who worshiped you even in their captivity. May we not be locked in by our fears as we seek to live out our faith. May we be encouraged in worship today as you transform us. May we learn to rejoice through all circumstances. In Jesus' name. Amen.

*Opening Hymn A Mighty Fortress is our God #260

Prayer of Confession

God of every nation, as we remember those that gave their life for our sake, let us be stirred to action in their memory. We confess that we have not done all that is possible to promote peace and justice in our world. We have not loved our neighbors, let alone our enemies. Forgive us for failing to live up to your commandments. Empower us to work for your Kingdom in this world, and welcome us by your grace into your Kingdom in the next. Amen.~ written by Rev. Robb McCoy

Words of Assurance

Gloria Patri #579* Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be; world without end, amen. Amen.

*Affirmation of Faith Apostle's Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ his only son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

An Old Irish Blessing

(words below)

Postlude

An Old Irish Blessing

May the road rise up to meet you, may the wind be always at your back, may the sun shine warm upon your face, and rain fall soft upon your fields and rain fall soft upon your fields. And until we meet again, until we meet again, and until we meet, we meet again, may God hold you in the palm of his hand.

Memorial Day-We come before God, not to glorify war, but to honor and celebrate those who walked into the chaos and evil that is war: those who were civilians and those who were military; those who braved the censure of society and those who gave of themselves for that society; those who survived and those who did not; those who were friends and those who were enemies. None who have waded through evil, death and sorrow are untouched in body, mind or spirit; they are beloved of God. We all were affected and changed by and all are in need of reflection, renewal, comfort and healing. ~ written by Lisa Frenz
