Oliver's wife, Sarah, is going to have a baby later this year. Oliver and Sarah both have full-time jobs now, but Oliver makes less money than Sarah. After the baby is born, Oliver will quit his job so that he can stay home and look after the baby during the day. He plans to work part-time at a restaurant in the evenings.

1. What is one thing Oliver plans to do after the baby is born?

2. When will Sarah give birth?

3. Where will Oliver work after the baby is born?

4. Who makes more money?
