Ted likes to play soccer. He doesn't have any brothers or sisters, and his friends live far away. He practices at home every day. Sometimes, he goes to a park and kicks a ball. It is not much fun.

One day, he saw a notice by the school gym. It said, "Every Saturday at one o'clock, there is a soccer game in Green Park. Anyone can play!" Ted was really happy. That week, he practiced hard every day after school. At dinnertime on Friday, he didn't eat much because he was excited about the game.

On Saturday morning, Ted didn't feel good. He was tired. His mother said, "Stay in bed, and play next weekend." Ted got up and had breakfast. When he got to Green Park, he felt better. He played in the game and got two goals. The other children said, "Come back next Saturday, Ted." Now, he can play soccer with his new friends.
