Man: Good Morning, Goldstar Bank. How may I help you?

Woman: My daughter told me you're offering new customers 0% interest on Goldstar Credit Cards. Is that correct?

Man: Yes, it is. I should say that this offer only lasts for a period of 3 months. After that time, the interest rises to 18 percent.

Woman: Oh, I see. Well, yes, even so, I would be interested in getting one. If I give you my email address, could you send me an application so I could apply for one?
