These young athletes have performed at the highest standards on the court, in the classroom, and in the halls of these schools. We are proud to have them represent their respective schools, as well as the Circle City Conference. Please join us in congratulating these young men and women on the honor of being selected to the inaugural Circle City Conference All-Conference Track Team.

Circle City Conference: Established in 2016, The Circle City Conference brings together like-minded schools from the Greater Indianapolis metro area, to provide a framework for excellence in interscholastic athletic competition. Within a context of appreciation and support for the unique characteristics of member schools, the Conference enhances student opportunities and achievement in all areas of each school's program.
