Lord Immanuel Constructs a New Home

Mary Angelene Mendoza

With the agreement of Dr. Elizabeth Z. Yoo, President of the Board of trustees and Mrs. Gaudencia P. Amparo, Principal III of LIIFI, the nursery building was built up and the grade 7 building was renovated in the campus of Lord Immanuel Institute Foundation Inc., which is why, last June 28, 2018 and August 2018 the opening of nursery and grade 7 was held, respectively.

The person involved in the opening of nursery were the faculty and staff, The President of PTF, Engineer Harriet Howell, Pastor Ely Ayano, and Pastor Jess Custodio. Before they abide the cutting of the ribbon, they started with an opening prayer, led by Pastor Jess Custodio.

They planned on what would be best to construct. Their first option was collage, but there is already an existing one on Banalo, Lobo Batangas. It is also free and most of The student would want to study in the city rather than province. So they prioritize the most needed in Lobo. After reminiscing, the inspiration was their key. It is the nursery, besides, the learning process is step by step. It's better to start up with slow and easy progress before they move up to Daycare.

They built up nursery so that the young individual can also learn and hear the Words of God. They also renovated the grade 7 building because the floor was to low that flood goes in when it rains LIIFI are waking their young minds so that, they can be able to establish a strong relationship with the Lord, while they are still young.

LIIFI have already started from the little ones, teenagers and the citizens of Lobo. They are hoping that they can also start preserving everyone on Earth from becoming one with the world and not with the Word.

Be a Buddy Not a Bully!

Bullying is a common conflict normally faced by the students. It is an act of hurting someone physically, verbally and socially. Bullying really changes one's attitude and can cause a vast impact to someone who experienced it. But what is the major impact of it to students.

A vast impact happens to a students who can't endure the pain because of the words and hurts that they have received. Bullying can lower the self-esteem and make someone depressed. A bullied person can think of suicidal thoughts for they can't digest all the insults that they get. Bullying can be a reason why someone is lying quietly in the corner of their classroom and doesn't socialize with the other students in the school. They also think that no one loves them and they are alone in this world.

Why does a bully or attacker still do a destructive and aggressive behavior to someone even though they know that they can hurt them?

A person's life is undetermined. The bully may have experienced family problem so they tend to hurt someone to throw all their grudges. They also lack attention from their parents. So they seek it from others who can be easily tricked

Most bullies or attackers find for easy targets that they can easily overpower. Be assertive or confident and always show that you are strong. We shouldn't judge and hate the bullies despite of what they did instead we should pray for them and let God be the one to punish them. Love and forgive them for they don't need your hate because in times of their misery we only need to show love and understanding. We should take a stand against all types of bullying by not joining and tolerating their bad deeds.

(Mendoza, Vico)

Let's Talk About Early Relationship

There are many kind of relationship existing in this world. Family, Friends, and even our relationship with our opposite sex are the basic relationship we all have. But let me ask you, does God involve in your relationship?

Nowadays parents noticed that most of the teenagers are having relationship with their opposite sex without permission of their parents. Why do some teenagers do this? Is it because they want love? Or they want an attention because they can't feel it from their parents? Or they didn't experience God's love? Teenagers, need a warm love and attention so that they will feel that there is someone who cared for them. Do you even notice that teenagers mostly open their secrets or struggle on their friends instead of their parents. This happens because they are being shy onto their parents or maybe their relationship isn't strong enough.

In this case, teenagers should build their relationship with God. They must seek Him in order for them to experience a full love and attention. When we go back from the question in paragraph and your answer is yes, you are blessed. Because having a relationship with God can lead you to build a best relationship with others.

2 Timothy 2:22

Flee the evil desires of youth and pursue righteousness, faith, love and peace, along with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

Letter From the Staff

Dear Readers,

Salt and Light is the official publication of the Lord Immanuel Institute Foundation, Inc. The difference of this school paper from the campus newspaper is that we do not just write articles but we also glorify God by writing articles which is true, good and inspiring.

Salt and Light
Matthew 5:13-16

“You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt loses its saltiness, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything except to be thrown out and trampled underfoot.”

“You are the light of the world. A town built on a hill cannot be hidden. Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead, they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others that may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven,

The world is contaminated because of people trespasses. We as the staff of the Salt and Light, we want to be the “Salt of the Earth” who will help to preserve the earth and we are the “Light of the Earth” who will give light and will show to people the truth by means of writing. God wants us to be the voice of the truth. He wants us to be the “salt and light” who will preserve and give light on Earth until His second coming.

A Paradise For Me, A World For Many

Nowadays, many abrupt occurrence are existing. Many news were reported about cruelty, poverty, scarcity, violence and may others. The world that we live in is just simply grievous and chaotic. Otherwise, love overpower above all things.

A girl sitting beside the window in her classroom was imagining about the world, she faced at her left side and spotted all the miseries in the world. Violence is prevalent wherever you go. Many people were inflicting pain to each other. The cruelty of the government, the way they fooled all the citizen and corruption made by them are present in her eyes she witnessed the poverty of a family that bears hunger for they can't afford to buy food. A man who is looking for a job and a man who endures the heat just to pick up all the plastic bottle and does every to make money.

When she looked at her right side she witnessed the heedlessness of human beings: a dry field which is worthless caused by the dry season and a trees which is ruined are present. A beautiful nature was destroying slowly due to the negligence of people. Above the dry field, she felt happiness in her eyes after seeing the birds freely flying and generating a sweet chirp which represent freedom and liberty.

In front of her, she noticed the children who is wasting money without knowing where it came from. They ignore all the sacrifices of their parents and considering only their happiness. A child was bullied by another that makes the latter lonely. In the corner of her eyes, a couple who is sweetly enjoying their relationship. A sweet relationship fated by God is firmed that a relationship built in the sand. It reminds about love who conquers everything.

Lastly when she turned to her back, she just simply saw a curtain. She remembered about a person who covers the mess and a person who hides their identity for the sake of themselves.

A girl who witnessed everything in this world is me. I saw the hardships behind the smile of all people, and the cruelty of the government. God is reminding us about His second coming which is nearly coming. He wanted us to measure how firm our faith is. Our life is full of ups and down, we can't dictate what our life will be. We need to accept the plans of God for us which is always the best. God's love inspires us to continue our living in His side to conquer everything with Him. In every sides of the world are full of violence but by the grace of God still there's a love and pity which dominate to all the heart of the citizens.

A Quiet Place

In this world full of people tend to ignore each other. People live their lives . No obligation. No God.

This is not stereotyping or making things in general but we, people need to be still. According to Ecclesiastes 3:1, "There is a time for everything a season for every activity under the heavens! There will always be a time. A time to laugh and also a time to be quiet. We need to reflect on things, rest for a while. We need a quiet place.

A quiet place to reflect and a quiet place to thank God. A place to have our own quality time to just breathe, smile and pray. A time to just eat, swim and relax away from noisy cymbals and hungry cats, away from buzzer, smokes and social medias notification. Just a time for you and God. God who created you, who saved you, who died for you. He loves you! What you need is just a quiet place.

Calm yourself, open your heart to God as you read, meditate and pray. Welcome to our quiet place.

The music cues as the students file down the aisle toward the stage, tassels bouncing in a rhythmic motion with each step taken. Beneath each white and blue cap is a student with a smile from ear to ear, thanking God for the day.

Others shed happy tears for the most anticipated day of their lives, graduation. Side by side, parents hold cameras, eager to catch every minute. The day has finally arrived; within a blink of an eye, school games, themed formals, new and old friendships will become sealed memories in this chapter. Another story is added and imprinted into our hearts for what waits ahead begins a new beginning, new story and new chapter.

From their day one to the final day of junior and senior year, many memorable days lie in between. The feeling of first entering high school becomes a distant memory. Each year brings a new sense of insight and confidence to face on the challenges of life. Within every individual grows a unique personality that continues to grow with each passing year. Each year comes trials and situations pushing each individual to overcome and persevere through. High school represents a time of many “firsts”. The dedication and advice given by teachers is forever cemented into the minds of students. The duration in high school has prepared students with wisdom and tools to applicate to their lives as adults.

As stated in the Book of Jeremiah, chapter 29 verse 11 (Jer. 29:11) “For I know the plans that I have for you”, says the Lord. “Plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.” God uses our experiences in order for us to trust Him more, for us to lean on Him more, for us to realize that it is He what we really need in our lives, for us to rely on Him in order to overcome whatever we are going through. Bad or good experiences are part of God’s work in our lives.

God loves us more than we’ll ever know. Like a doting parent keeping close watch over his children, our God is constantly on guard for our own good. When He knows that we are straying from the right path, He either gives us a slight tap on the shoulder or a hard pinch on the arm. In addition, He always reminds us that He has greater plans in store. He allows us to experience different things in order us to be stronger when another wave of trials come our way. He allows us to fall down so that we can pick ourselves up from the ground and move on with a better outlook in life.

Wherever you go and whatever you do, please do not forget to thank God. He is always in control.

God bless you in your next journey. Shalom!

Loving Me At My Darkest

When my nights are full of sorrow
 And my heart's broke by an arrow
 He came and told me to follow
 Promising a brighter tomorrow

He turns my what if's into thank you's
 With Him I forgot all my sad blues
 And at 3 am, I am no longer crying
 Because HE makes me keep on frying

Every time I sing to worship
 I know I overcome to hardship
 This world will give you pain
 But His blessing you will gain

And if you feel that your life is nonsense
 I'll stand firm to justify His existence
 To us, He is never far apart
 Because He is living inside our heart

I no longer wish at 11:11
 Because He is with me 24/7
 We can't find love in other teen
 True love is in John 3:16

He's never dead but always alive
 And He'll lead you to eternal life
 He loves me at my darkness
 And I love Him at It's finest

Juana

When I say... "I am a Christian"

When I say... "I am a Christian"
 I'm not shouting, "I'm saved!
 I'm whispering, "I get lost!"
 "That is why I chose this way"

When I say... "I am a Christian"
 I don't speak of this with pride
 I'm confessing that I stumble,
 And need someone to be my guide

When I say... "I am a Christian"
 I'm not trying to be strong,
 I'm professing that I'm weak,
 And pray for strength to carry on

When I say... "I am a Christian"
 I'm not bragging of success,
 I'm admitting that I've failed
 And cannot ever pay the debt

When I say... "I am a Christian"
 I'm not claiming to be perfect,
 My flaws are way too visible
 But God believes I'm worth it

When I say... "I am a Christian"
 I still feel the sting of pain
 I have my share of heartaches
 Which is why I seek His Name

When I say... "I am a Christian"
 I do not wish to judge
 I have no authority
 I only know I'm loved!

The One That God Allowed

Love is not just about accepting and granting Love is all about trusting and enduring Love is not about giving and risking
 Love is all about waiting and sacrificing Love describes eternal and willingness Love gives us the real happiness
 Love can be also about giving
 So you must be aware of losing Love is something you can receive
 But very hard to retrieve
 Make sure to love when you are ready
 Not when you feel lonely

You can't receive without giving
 You can't hope without believing
 You can't win without fighting
 You can't love without hurting

Love is not blind
 It's not something you should find
 Love will find its way back to you
 And that's when God has something up to

The right one won't ever hurt you
 While the cheater will destroy you
 The right one is willing to give everything
 While the cheater will do nothing

The right one for you has been reserved
 For sure, it's more than you deserve
 Trust in God's perfect time
 Then everything's gonna be fine

Your principle in love must be give and take Because you cannot give what you do not have Taking risk is not that hard
 So risk everything for the one that God allowed!

Unshakable Faith

Every person cannot live without bread,
But how can a person live without the word of God.

The word of God molds our faith
Without the word, we are nothing

Believing according to the work of His mighty powers

Will have everlasting life

Whosoever believe shall not be ashamed, Instead, will experience the richness of His glory.

We as an individual, who molds our faith
We are responsible for controlling our life
We bring our life toward the wrong direction
Who makes our life complicated

Nothing is wrong when we believe
Nothing is wrong when we comply
The most important thing is we didn't trample anyone
Because unshakable faith can bring impossible things to life

-Atame

Transitory

For us, problem is a curse
But its not!
This is a blessing
Which teaches us to be uncompromising

Even everyone is against you
God is here to stand by you
Even everyone brings you down
Call to him and He will raise you up

Through everyone is inflicting pain upon you
Fear knocks on you,
Happiness were taking away from you
Just believe in God and He will never leave you

Do not hesitate to approach God
He will never let us suffer
All difficulties are temporary
Just be connected to Him, anytime and anywhere

What Am I Looking For?

I'm a child full of burden
About all the things that happen
Around my eyes, I see madness
And their heart full of mess

Many of them wear guns
To protect their love ones
Ensuring their safety
And no one will hurt seriously

Some of people are killing without authority
Just for the sake of their power and money
Protecting their real identity
So that they can move freely

Even our governments
Are having arguments
They cannot understand each other
Because in terms of listening, no one can remember

I as a child
I want a good life
A child like me wants peace and unity
Because that is the best for our country

My Superior God

A thousand times I've failed
But his mercy still remains
He alone protects and saves me
He never fails to amaze me

He is my defender
And I shall never surrender
Everytime I sing to worship
I know I overcome the hardship

Trials cannot stop me
People cannot break me
Haters cannot silence me
Demons cannot defeat me
Because Christ lives in me

-Tres Marias

UNDER THE MOONLIGHT

Mary Angelene L. Mendoza

Lying softly in his bed, undecided of what he would do on that night. He got out of his bed, wears his jacket and took a bill on his wallet. He head his way on an eatery near his apartment. It was still the same cold night, the moon shining up above and the same stingy feeling inside.

On his way to the eatery he heard two voices, an angry and crying voice; he then felt curiosity out of it. It was new to him because, literally in the same case he would continue walking, not minding of what's happening around him. It is because he puts into mind that he got many things to carry on his shoulders and minding other people's businesses would be an excess. He saw them on a dark street, he did himself somewhere he would see and hear them clearly. He heard curses. It was too clear and way too bold.

"Dad! It hurts! Please stop hurting! Please stop hurting me!" Cried by little girl.

"No! You should learn your lesson! How many times do I have to tell you to not talk and to meet him ever again!" The growling man said to the girl

"It's because he's my real father and not you! I heard your conversation with man! If it weren't for you, we might be happy and complete right now! You're ever hurting me always! I hate you!" A hard and loud slap meets the girl's face after bursting out.

He was shocked by the man's action. He ran to the two which are obviously connected. Even though he has many problems he still has space in his heart for a person being hurt.

He stops the man when he lifted up his fist again. The man shocked and dumb founded as he landed a hard punch on the guy face. He hated people like him.

"Why are you meddling with us!? Mind your own business! He laughs mockingly. "For all I know you're the one who meddles with other's life! "How dare you to hurt her!?" and throw another punch.

They exchange punches and curses.

They became alerted when he saw the man taking out a gun from his back. He gets the little girl's hand which is just beside them, crying and they run as fast as they could. He already knows will happen next.

"You're really crazy! I should have fight for her!" He regretted his decisions back then.

The girl was crying, running as fast as he could, afraid of dying.

The man at the back pulled the trigger and pointed the gun at him. They were the highway and he saw a light that is coming from their right side. He heard horn from a car. He supposed that it could be the little girl last sigh but he chooses to be the one to sacrifice. Thinking that, in last day of his life he made a right decisions that he would never regret. He pushed the girl to the sidewalk on the highway. He heard a gunshot, it was loud and clear. Just as clean as the fact that it was his tragical ending. He laughed at his thought. He felt the bullet in his back.

"No! Don't die! Thank you for everything! I love you Dad!" the girl cried and she couldn't even tell her words.

"You'll be safe now and sorry and I love you!" He could hardly speak fighting the urge of cutting his unending pain to permanently lose all the pain.

A tear comes running down from his eyes. He smiled for the last time. That night was worth remembering because even though his life was dull, miserable and full of regrets, and he couldn't change his wrong decisions back then at least he corrected it by doing the right thing that he should have did back then, to fight for his love.
