Run the Race of Faith

Research by: Joyce Pestijo

In the Christian life, we run the race of faith. We don't strive for the crown that only one can receive. We strive to finish strong in our faith. God makes us all winners when we cross the line. We get him! Forever! Thus, we all win God by persevering in faith and getting to the finish line. But we, like runners, must lay aside hindrances of our endurance. Hebrews 12:1-3 says,

Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted.

Runners not only properly nourish their body and recover well, but they also work hard to build endurance. They endure long runs. They do speed workouts. They lift weights. They stretch. They push through pain. They have sore muscles and tired lungs.

Likewise, as Christians, we work hard to strengthen our faith to endure the race of faith. We must seek him daily in his word and in prayer. We must seek fellowship among other believers and let our fellow church members encourage us in the faith. We must welcome rebuke and embrace trials. Personal discipline is essential if we are to keep our eyes focused on Jesus.

Every ounce counts in a foot race. The lighter the endurance runner, the swifter the runner. The same is true in the Christian life. Many things slow us down and eventually stall us in the race of faith. In my case, chasing self-centered joy and personal accolades. Sin clings closely. It's hard to get off, and it's heavy. We lay aside every weight and clingy sin. The farther we are from sin, the closer we are to Jesus. When we sin, we take our eyes off Jesus and put them on ourselves. We choose to do our will instead of his. But we can't make it to the finish line without looking to Jesus — the author and finisher of our faith. When we set our eyes firmly on him, we will not grow weary in the fight against sin and in the race to persevere in faith. We remember the crown waiting for us in glory and continue running. Jesus made us lightweight runners. He took the burden of our sins and placed them on himself at the cross. Then he rose from the dead and sat at the right hand of God to pray for us to fight sin and continue in faith.

In my last collegiate season, Hebrews 12:1-3 was such a gift from God to run each race. When the gun went off, I pictured Jesus, who knew what the brutal cross would accomplish, enduring it with full joy. I didn't grow weary when I felt like giving up because Jesus didn't give up. As a result, I grew closer to Jesus. The physical race became a real-life vision of the cross where I could — in part — identify with him.

The race of faith is life's journey for the Christian. Imagine what would happen if we looked to Jesus every day. Every weight would fall off and every sin would untangle from us. Each look at Jesus would strengthen us to endure and finish well. He waits for us on the other side. He is our crown, and we will be with him forever. Every huff, every twinge of pain, and every prolonged day on earth is worth patiently enduring the journey to get to the finish line — to get to Jesus.

Cagayan De Oro Training Camp

By: Jhen Mhae Dueñas

“Who goes before you on your way, to seek out a place for you to encamp, in fire by night and cloud by day, to show you the way in which you should go. —Deuteronomy 1: 33 Relationship and communication to God is two important things in our lives. As the two disciple of Jesus joined the 5-day training camp in Cagayan, they experienced a lot of things about Jesus.

Ms. Rudycarr Gaca and Mrs Jackielou Ramos flew over to Cagayan de Oro City last May 7, 2017 to join the training camp. They took the camp as a big opportunity for them to know God more and interact with other nationalities. Yes, they have different cultures, beliefs and languages; they were bind by one Spirit. They were all gathered there for one purpose-to gather on the way and to be one in Christ.

Mrs. Ramos mentioned that of all the activities they had she enjoyed group sharing wherein she had the opportunity to share things to a pastor, a retired judge, and to a foreigner. “Education is really important but the most important thing is we all know that we belong to God”, she added. For Ms. Gaca she said that she will be a channel of blessings to others.

They enjoyed the training camp and surely they can use all their learning in our school.

Well Done, Servants!

By: Maegan Buela and Aina Marie De Castro

LIFI Teachers who passed the Licensure Examination

On September 24, 2017, seven of the faculty members passed the Licensure Examination for Teachers (LET). One of them is Ms. Elonor B. Abanilla, Filipino Major but teaching TLE at present. She's inspired by the scripture from Philippians 4:13, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.

Another teacher, Ms. Nheda Angela Abdon, believes in the Bible Verse "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me"- Philippians 4:13. Her family supported her and wished her to be successful in everything. She prayed hard and really put her trust to God.

Ms. Abigail M. Cortas, Major in Social Studies is another LET passer. She believes the scripture from Matthew 6:33 and Proverbs 3:5-6. "Matthew 6:33, "But seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you." During her review, she faced some struggles, like having a family pressure because she is the eldest daughter. Her family had a high expectation that she can pass the examination. It is a big challenge for her because in her mother side, she is the only one who finished college. Instead of attending her review every Saturday, she chose to attend church services. "Proverbs 3:5-6, "Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths",-this Bible verse is my source of encouragement," she said.

Ms. Rosielle De Torres also passed the LET Examination. She holds the Bible Verse Isaiah 41:10, "So do not fear for I am with you. Be not dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you, Yes I will help you. I will uphold you with my righteous hand." She believed that God will help her in everything she does. Her inspiration was her family and her instructor in her Masters Degree. She did self review whenever she has free or vacant time.

Ms. Rudycarr Gaca, Filipino Major, is also on the list of LET passers.. Her inspiration was her family because they are the one who supported her and encouraged her to take the exam. The Lord granted her prayers on what she's dreaming of. After waiting for several years, she felt really blessed this time. She believes that if it is not really your time, it will not be and she also believe that with God nothing is impossible. With God's grace she passed and now she is a licensed teacher. She holds the Bible Verse Jeremiah 29:11, "For I know the plans I have for you says the Lord, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.

Ms. Ella Magtibay, is another Licensed teacher. She is Physical Science Major but currently teaching Values Education and Technology and Livelihood Education in grades 7 and 9. Same as with the other passers, the journey was tough. Some people have doubt on her skills, they didn't believe that she could passed it but she didn't give up, she trusted God and with God's grace she passed.

Ms. May Ann Perez ,Grade

7 and 8 Mathematics Teacher, confessed that she passed the examination believing in the scripture from Mark 11:24, "Therefore, I will tell you whatever you asked for in prayer believe that you receive and it will be yours." She believes that if you declare something it will be yours. Her inspiration before and during the examination was her family. The journey was tough but with the grace of our Lord, she passed.

Passing the licensure exam was a great blessing that God has given to them. They were so blessed because after the struggles they've faced in serving God, their prayers have been answered. Congratulations our dear teachers!

Letter from the Editor

Dear Readers,

Salt and Light is the official publication of the Lord Immanuel Institute Foundation, Incorporated. The difference of the Salt and light from the other campus newspaper is we don't just write articles but also we glorify God by writing articles which is true, good and inspiring.

Matthew 5:13-16

Salt and Light

"You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt loses its saltiness, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything, except to be thrown out and trampled underfoot.

"You are the light of the world. A town built on a hill cannot be hidden. Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven.

The world is contaminated because of people's trespasses. We as the member of the Salt and Light staff, we want to be the "Salt of the Earth" who will help to preserve the earth and we are the Light of the Earth" that set on a hill cannot be hidden who will give light that will show to people the truth and the right path to go through by means of writing. God wants us to be the voice of truth. He wants us to be the "salt and light" who will preserve and give light the earth until His second coming.

buildings, establishments and even the lives of the people had been devastated. Many soldiers fought and sacrificed their lives just to ensure that the peace will be given back to Marawi. These soldiers are considered as the "Heroes of Marawi" as they gave their heart in the battle. And we, as Filipinos, we must salute their courageousness and bravery.

You? How could you be a hero?

In this world, our number one enemy is satan. Everyday his forces wage war against us, so it is very important to be protected. One weapon we have with which to meet satan's attack is the word of God. (Ephesians 6:17). Many students are reading bible but they don't get and understand the messages that God want them to know. We, Christian can help them. We can inspire and motivate them to attend Bible study, cell groups and other services that will lift up their faith. And when they take this opportunity seriously, it will bring changes in their life. See? We are not sharing our knowledge about the word of God only but also we harvest and save souls.

Being a hero is not just because you are idealized for courage, having outstanding achievements or even noble qualities. So don't under estimate yourself, you might think that you cannot be a hero because you are too young and your not sacrificing your life for other. Remember that you are a soldier of God and in simply sharing His words, you can be ahero because you bring and save souls to the Kingdom of God. (If you want more about spiritual armor, read Ephesians 6:10-18)

1 Corinthians 15:33

By: Gizelle Pentinio

There was once a girl who was so committed to studies and good work and was so conscious about what other people will think about her. One day, while walking at the hallway, she noticed a group of teens bullying a teenage girl. She was so sad about the scene and decided to meet the group after class. So it happened. She waited patiently at the gate of the school for this group to arrive. She tried her best about convincing them not to do that act again because its against God's words. She decided to hang up with them always to ensure that they are doing better. But the things didn't go well as planned because it is not her who influenced the group instead, it is the group who influenced her. She became worse and starting to do what this group is doing. The longer the time she is with the group, the worse are the things that they are doing. At first, she was so afraid of the consequences that she may face after but as days passes, she became used to it and became a routine. She felt that a day is "incomplete" if she didn't hang up and do crazy things with the group. Until one day, all of her wrongdoings are hunting her inner self. Her conscience is not permitting her to sleep.

Institute Foundation, Inc. every Wednesday after class hours. It started last July 2017 wherein there were thirty students participated on the first day, gathered by the one that is touch by God who have the heart to study the Word of God, Joyce Pestijo, 10-Moses. At first, it was led by Ms. Abigail Cortas , a Christian teacher who have the heart and willingness to share the Gospel. This activity keep going and still working because many students were being hungry and thirsty in the Word of God. As the day goes by, there were many students and also teachers got involved in this activity namely Ma'am Maria Teresa Magtibay, Ma'am Katrine Cay, Sir Glenn Darel Ramirez and Sir Joriel Asi . Until now by the grace of the Lord there are a lot of students growing in faith and developing their relationship in GOD.

This world is full of lure that can temporary filled everything on us. It seems like enjoyable at first but bit it will ruined your whole life. The devil move smoothly until one day we will besituated ourselves totally destroyed. The enemy is like a roaring lion seeking always someone to devour. We can conclude that the world will fail and disappoint us. The things and people we counted on have not proven to be reliable. The only One who proved the unconditional and permanent love is God. His love is our only anchor, our only solid support worth leaning on. Through this we can stand firmly in the world no matter what happen because we are resting on something much more stable, reliable, and spectacular. All in all everything can be found through Jesus.

Go therefore and make disciples of all nations baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Matthew 28:19

In the middle of realization, she found herself lying in the midst of darkness. She have no friends to lean on and no one to turn to. She felt so alone and remembered that she used to have an understanding, caring, kind, good, and forgiving Lord. So she carry herself up, get the bible at the corner of the room, opened it and read about 1 Corinthians 15:33: "Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners." She cried upon reading the verse. She realized that she has become a victim of evil for the past months and decided not to be a victim anymore. She made the greatest decision and this decision is walking in the straight path and not letting the evil be with her again. She confessed all her sins to God and faithfully regret all of those stuffs. Since then, things are gradually changing. Bad things of the become lessons to her and God let her receive abundant blessing. She realized that everything happens for a reason and that you will never know the meaning of happiness without experiencing sadness. Right now, after a year, this girl is a happy servant of God with her family, friends, and the love of her life on her side and Jesus at the center. And this girl is yours truly.

The Story of I

By: Leizel Zaraspe

Does God listen when I pray?
Or when I speak does He turn away?
When life is tough, is it He, doing?
Is He putting me through a test, to reveal my faithfulness?

Lost in this world with no guidance
I need help, where can I find it?
My faith is strong, though sometimes rough
I pray to God, but is it really enough?

I know I stray away at times
But I beg for forgiveness, of this heart of mine
Sometimes I wonder, why is it me?
When I am going this kind of tragedy.

But then I remember, all He's done
He sacrificed His only begotten son
No matter what I go through,
I know His with me, every step of the way

By: Joyce Pestijo

RIDDLE 1

I am old but also new
I may seem rather strange
but all of me is true
I am 66 inside but really only
1
I can be pocket sized or
sometimes weigh a ton!
All of me is about a person
you really ought to meet
He often signs his name and
each story is his treat
I am a world best-seller but
sadly seldom read
Perhaps you've seen me on a shelf or lying by a bed?
What am I?

RIDDLE 2

I was high in the sky but
also firmly on the earth
I brought cooperation for many but confusion for all
I was unmissable by the crowd
yet overlooked by the One
I was the world's first true
skyscraper and also its last
I am in the Bible - what am
I?
(HINT: Genesis 11:1 - 8)

RIDDLE 3

I can be carried but not touched
I have two on the outside
and ten on the inside
Everyone wants to catch a
sight of me
But I'm kept out of sight
I was lost and found; then found but now I am lost
I'm in the Bible - what am
I?
