M&M Banquet

Robert's Ramblin's

Participation: the action of taking part in something. This is a pretty broad Association to remember. I want to thank the six churches who participated in this year's Winter Bible Study. There were joyous celebrations as we met in a different church each Wednesday and enjoyed the food they had prepared, and studies about the Sermon on the Mount from Matthew. And several churches and individuals participated in the 'Worship in the Word Conference' on March 1 and 2, thanks to Travis and Jeremiah's good planning and executing the program. The M & M Banquet is always a good time for us to participate together in an associational event. Thanks to New Hope church for always providing a great place for the banquet. The meal was excellent, decorations very nice and many Missions & Ministry ideas and thoughts were shared. Now consider how you will participate in the upcoming events:

Deacon's Day – April 13

Biblical Manhood Conf. at FBC Sedalia – April 26-28

Making salvation bracelets for Mo. State Fair Baptist Tent – May 18

And your church's ongoing worship and learning activities!

BE AN ACTIVE PARTICIPANT!!

Spring is a time of renewal. The flowers bloom, the trees begin to leaf out , and grass begins to green up. We begin to sense a feeling of renewal.

As we approach missions, we need to have a renewal of our hearts and a feel for missions. We do this by following three ways mentioned in the passage.

First, we must submit our lives that serves Christ fully letting Him have full use of us working in and through us to bring glory to Him as a vessel that brings honor to Him, pleases Him and worships and lifts Him up.

Secondly, we can have renewal by allowing God to defeat/overcome the way of the world, the old nature and sin in our life. Then we may give Him our Life and let Him have full ownership and lordship. Then through faith and walking in Jesus allowing Him to change our life, heart, and mind leading us in His Kingdom work.

Finally, renewal happens in missions when our life by God's working revealing His grace, His acceptable perfect will to those around us so that they may enter His Kingdom by faith in Jesus.

Let's experience renewal in our lives, churches, and mission work.

You can make this a wonderful event for kids through senior adults. We need to bring out your artistic side. This will be a way to be involved with missions throughout Sedalia and the whole state.

Needed, a Helping Hand!

Please don't wait till the last second to ask for help; or we as Christians need to be ready to step in when we see someone struggling. Many times we do not want to interfere. You can do it politely and in a helpful manner. We are here in the place God has put us for a purpose. We do not live life alone. Christians are here to gather people to God and show God's kindness. Will you be what God has called us to be?

Calvary: Spring has Sprung! It is wonderful to see God's tapestry in the trees and flowers in bloom. God's not dead, He is Alive. As we prepared for Resurrection Sunday we, as a church body, passed out flyers in our surrounding area. What a great time adults and youth had interacting and inviting people to come celebrate Resurrection Sunday with us. We will be serving the Lord this Resurrection Sunday; beginning with Sunrise Service at 7 am, followed by a yummy breakfast, Sunday School at 8:30 am and finishing with our Worship Service at 9:45 am. Praise God for His crucifixion, His resurrection and His coming again. Calvary is alive and well, serving the Lord. We had a baby dedication in March and are continuing our Biblical Doctrine Training on Thursday. Plans are coming along well for Vacation Bible School. We anxiously await to see what God has planned for Calvary this spring and beyond

East Sedalia: We are participating in the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering this month. On March 11th, members of the Outreach Committee took treat bags and cards to Washington School staff, to show appreciation to them for their dedication to the students. We are looking forward to Good Friday and Easter Sunday Services. Pastor Kevin and his wife, Cory, celebrated birthdays in March.

Mt. Herman: Events about the Pre-existence and life of Christ was the sermon topic for March at Mt. Herman. Resurrection Sunday was celebrated with breakfast and early worship service. We are always praising God through good music, lots of prayer, Bible-based preaching, and sweet fellowship. Attendance has been a little above average with some visitors attending.
