

550

Lamb of God

TEXT BACKGROUND

Describing her process of writing “Lamb of God,” Twila Paris *b. 1958) comments; “Lamb of God” was recorded in 1985, the year my husband and I got married. I remember specifically that the process of writing this song felt more like taking dictation than creating. I’ve always believed that each song, along with underlying ability to write songs, is a gift from God. “Lamb of God” became for me a faithful reminder of my absolute dependence on the creator and source of all good things.¹