PROPHETIC WORDS GIVEN AT ALTON DAY OF RENEWAL

Prophecy isn't primarily about telling the future. It's essentially giving us current insight into God's plan and His Word, calling us back to what's already been revealed in public revelation. The Catechism of the Catholic Church states that although "Revelation is complete, it has not been made completely explicit; it remains for Christian faith gradually to grasp its full significance". (CCC66) Prophecy encourages us and reminds us of the heart of Christianity: of God's love, His mercy and forgiveness through Jesus and His presence with us through the power of the Holy Spirit.

The following words were given at Alton Day of Renewal, and we believe they are from the Lord. But they will not all be relevant for everyone: you need to pray to the Holy Spirit for discernment about whether God is speaking to you personally about something. We hope you find them inspiring, encouraging, or comforting. Although we have prayed and discerned that they are in line with Scripture and the teaching of the Church, please bear in mind that "Private revelations.... do not belong to the deposit of faith. It is not their role to improve or complete Christ's definitive Revelation, but to help live more fully by it in a certain period of history." (CCC67)

ALTON DAY OF RENEWAL WORDS OF PROPHECY 28/6/2025

First Word

I felt the Lord was holding out His hands and saying: "Come, come, be like my mother Mary." And then: "Ponder anew what the Almighty can do," that lovely line from the hymn – to spend more time pondering than talking.

Second Word

I had this from the Lord: "My children, I want to reassure you of my love. In these times of darkening spiritual skies, have no fear for you are the apple of my eye. Do not bow down under the world's troubles, but raise your eyes to your Father in heaven and nestle under the protection of His wings. As storm clouds gather together, I will be the eye of your every storm. I will hover over you, protect you, and provide for you. My children, stand firm in me and in my love; be wise to the deceit and twisted lies that surround you, for my truth is in you and my spirit will guide you. As voices clamour for war and hatred stalks many streets. consecrate your lives to me and be my peacemakers; proclaiming the truth of my love to a fearful world so that, through my love & mercy, many will turn to me in repentance and be saved. Blessed are you when you spread my peace, for you will see my glory!"

Third Word

This is what came to me: "My dear people, sometimes it is necessary just to adore Me without any hope of any words from Me, just being in My presence and delighting in Me with you. This can produce its own fruit in your lives - answers to prayers unsaid, beauty and goodness in your lives."

Fourth Word

I thought the Blessed Sacrament looked like a large white searchlight, and it brought to mind the beginning of Psalm 139 "O Lord, you search me and you know me." Then I felt the Lord say: "Do not be afraid that I can see you always – be thankful that I watch over you as a good shepherd, always ready to help you and comfort you."

Fifth Word

That partly confirms the word I had, which was: "I am the light of the world, says the Lord, carry me into the world for others."

Sixth Word

I had a picture of light in darkness, looking up into a dark sky and then I saw this bright star and I asked the Lord what He meant by showing me this and He said: "Just keep your eyes fixed on me and I will keep you safe and I will be with you."

Seventh Word

I had this word from the Holy Scriptures: "Look at the fields, they are ripe for harvest." This is confirmation of a project that we have to call teenagers to our church. The Lord means business, especially with teenagers before they are grasped by the media.

Eighth Word

Having just celebrated the feast of the Sacred Heart, there are so many rays of light going out right into the darkness. The world is quite dark at the moment and I just thought: "Trust in the Lord, surrender; I am in the centre, I am looking out, do not fear, do not worry, just give everything to me. I am the light in the darkness." And I thought of Maximilan Kolbe, he was in a very dark place and trusted in the Lord.

Ninth Word

I had a message from Mary: "I love all those who love my Son. I would be proud to take them, as the mother of the groom, to the altar with the Father the Almighty, where my Son the groom will be waiting for you at the final wedding." Also, the lady earlier was talking about the field of the harvest and I felt since the beginning of Holy Mass that this generation is a field for harvest, which is growing more and more now.

Tenth Word

Just to confirm what was said earlier, to be silent before the Lord, to be in Adoration more. And if we have difficulty with it, to ask Our Lady, she will help us. And I thought that, as the Lord was shining from her heart, she will shine. And I had her words "Do whatever He tells you" – she will guide us in the silence to hear his words through her.

Eleventh Word

I was struck by the whiteness around the host in the centre of the monstrance and I was reminded of Isaiah 1:18 "Come now, let us reason together – though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow." And I felt maybe the Lord was reminding us to give thanks for the gift of salvation, and how much we can take that for granted. And then the yellow light around it reminding us that it was the light of the Spirit illuminating the path for us to Jesus. I was reminded that we need to lean into the Spirit, to allow him to lead and guide us.

Twelfth Word

I was invited to write the bidding prayers for the Mass and last Tuesday I wrote: "In this Jubilee year of Hope I pray that we may shine as light in darkness to all those who live in a world without faith." I'm just totally amazed that prayer is what people have been sharing today!

Thirteenth Word

The hymn "Let All that is Within Me Cry Holy" came to mind. Perhaps we can all check out this hymn and pray the words later today.

Fourteenth Word

I had an image of a precious pearl and Mary.

Fifteenth Word

This is a time of flux and sometimes we see some aspect of what could be, but when we need to share, it is to be with gentleness and love.

Sixteenth Word

Mark 15:20 "the soldiers make fun of Jesus"- encouragement for anyone who is being belittled. And also an encouragement to slow down a bit and be respectful/encouraging to a fellow Christian.

Seventeenth Word

Holy, Holy, Holy: focus on the Holiness of God.

Eighteenth Word

The devil is disruptive, but Our Lady is crushing his head.

Words of Knowledge for healing

- Someone who is having an MRI Scan and is quite fearful.
- Someone with a regularly upset stomach.
- Someone very unhappy with life and wanting to end it.
- Someone struggling to read with failing eyesight.
- Someone feeling guilty about the way they are treating someone else.
- There are so many ways you can show my love to the world. A genuine smile or a kind word are high on the list and so simple to do. Love your neighbour as you love yourself.
- Someone who feels very heavy-hearted and enveloped in a sense of desolation
- Someone needing to make an important decision but feeling stressed about it
- Someone who is feeling deeply troubled and guilty about having had an abortion some years ago.
- Someone who is struggling to forgive themselves for something that has happened in the past.
