

Advice on Promoting Parish Streaming Venues

Catholic Charismatic Renewal Gatherings Using live-streams from ADoRE

OVERVIEW

This sheet gives advice on how you can promote Streaming venues in your parish. Please read this in conjunction with the “Parish Streaming Venues Information” sheet.

WHOSE MEETING IS IT ANYWAY?

The first thing to be clear about is that this is your Parish Meeting. Although you are using the livestream from ADoRE, it is NOT an ADoRE meeting. It's important to understand this, because your meetings need to be covered by your Parish or Diocesan Safeguarding and Insurance arrangements, particularly if you are offering Prayer Ministry as part of the meeting. ADoRE cannot take responsibility for any part of the meeting (apart from the livestream) as we have no control over how it is conducted.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

As long as you don't call it an ADoRE meeting, it's up to you. You may want to call it a Parish Renewal Meeting; or if you have a prayer group already, you may want to promote this under the Prayer group name. Decide what would work best in your Parish. (The name Parish Streaming Meeting is just a generic name we are using for information purposes but we don't necessarily feel you should use it).

GET THE PICTURE?

An illustration always attracts attention on a poster. You may use the illustration at the top of this sheet, which was developed exclusively for this purpose. Let us know if you would like a larger format file.

To avoid any confusion, do not use the ADoRE logo or name as a main focus of the publicity, as this will give the incorrect impression that it is an ADoRE meeting.

FORMS OF PUBLICITY

We suggest you use whatever communicates best with your target audience. Posters, Fliers, Parish Bulletin announcements, Website pages, announcement at the end of Mass. maybe Social Media. Above all, word of mouth is the most effective. If you've been following ADoRE Zoom meetings already, you can share with people what you get out of the sessions.

DESIGN TEMPLATE

On the next page you will see a suggested poster/flier layout, with comments. This design is available as a template on the ADoRE website at www.altonrenewal.com/your_parish

If you would like feedback on the design of a leaflet or poster, please email it to adore@altonrenewal.com

Above all, please pray about how to run and publicise your meetings.
