PROPHETIC WORDS GIVEN AT ALTON DAY OF RENEWAL

Prophecy isn't primarily about telling the future. It's essentially giving us current insight into God's plan and His Word, calling us back to what's already been revealed in public revelation. The Catechism of the Catholic Church states that although "Revelation is complete, it has not been made completely explicit; it remains for Christian faith gradually to grasp its full significance". (CCC66) Prophecy encourages us and reminds us of the heart of Christianity: of God's love, His mercy and forgiveness through Jesus and His presence with us through the power of the Holy Spirit.

The following words were given at Alton Day of Renewal, and we believe they are from the Lord. But they will not all be relevant for everyone: you need to pray to the Holy Spirit for discernment about whether God is speaking to you personally about something. We hope you find them inspiring, encouraging, or comforting. Although we have prayed and discerned that they are in line with Scripture and the teaching of the Church, please bear in mind that "Private revelations.... do not belong to the deposit of faith. It is not their role to improve or complete Christ's definitive Revelation, but to help live more fully by it in a certain period of history." (CCC67)

*We have discerned that the Words below marked with an asterisk are not strictly speaking prophecies, but are interesting observations.

ALTON DAY OF RENEWAL WORDS OF PROPHECY 24/1/2026

First Word

I felt the Lord saying that we need to immerse ourselves in His love, like a dry sponge. We cannot take on water unless we become damp and damper. Also, like, a wet sponge, we can't absorb any more until we empty ourselves. So, the follow-up to "Immerse yourself in my love" was, "Pour out, my love, so that I can give you more."

Second Word

The people God has formed for himself need to praise him, worship him, never stop, never cease to pray, on our knees, arms lifted up to God. For us mortals, everything seems to be impossible, but with God everything is possible. Just give everything to God at the altar, surrender to him your fears, worries, sickness, God is with you, God will never abandon his children. "By you I can crush a troop, by my God I can leap over a wall" (Ps 18:29). With the help of God you can walk on the stormy ocean. God will send his Angels to protect you.

Third Word

"I have made up My mind, no longer shall you be forsaken, forgotten, but you will be carried in My arms, tenderly held, comforted. I appeal to you, do not forget Me or forsake Me yourselves, but nurture My life in your soul by spending more time with Me in silence."

Fourth Word

As I was looking at the monstrance, I just felt the Lord look deep into my soul and the words "Do not be afraid. Do not be afraid. I'm with you. Do not be afraid."

Fifth Word

“Do not be afraid” also came to me.

Sixth Word

The words I got were: “Do not be afraid. I have come that you would have life in me, life to the full. I'm closer to you than a brother. I know everything about you, and I love you with an everlasting love. Nothing can keep me from you. I want to remove all obstacles that prevent you from receiving my love.”

And I wanted to add that yesterday at Mass and adoration I was praying for ADoRE, for this meeting, and I had a picture of a beaver. I wasn't sure straight away, but then I recognised that they build dams, and I think they stop the water flowing. And it seemed like God wanted to break down the dams, the obstacles so that the flow of the water, the Holy Spirit, could flow into us and out to others and into the world. And then there was that memory of that scripture about, the water flowing and the trees on either side of the bank and the living creatures of every kind, that came forth as well.

Seventh Word

I didn't see the monstrance first. I saw shadows and it was the shadow of the monstrance, and then I watched the back of it, and the word that came up for me was shadows, and then sunset. But immediately, I went to the hymn. It's one of my favourites: “The love I have for you, my lord, is only a shadow of your love for me.” And then immediately, the line of the other hymn “I watch the sunrise lighting the sky, casting its shadows...” and I couldn't get away from that feeling of. an overwhelming warmth and the sun coming up. It's there, it's just very gradually coming up but we have to be mindful all the time of the love that he has for us, is greater than our love for Him. And I always remember Cardinal Cantalamessa saying, imagine yourself as a solar panel. You're absorbing the sun, and the sun's feeding off you as well, so it's a mutual thing.

Eighth Word

The word I got was “only a shadow of my love for you.” Also, looking at the Monstrance, the words “Lay everything down before me and all will be well.”

[NB at the end of Fr Chris's talk later in the meeting, he played the hymn “Only a shadow of your love” on the slide show he had prepared in advance.]

Ninth Word

“Didn't I tell you that if you believe, you will see my glory.”

Tenth Word

“I am with you”

Eleventh Word

“Peace, be still.”

Twelfth Word

“You cannot run from love.”

ADORE PROPHETIC SHARING JANUARY 2026

Thirteenth Word

“I am calling you to go deeper in my love. Do not be afraid. Perfect love casts out fear.”

Fourteenth Word

“Behold the lamb of God, Behold He who takes away the sins of the world.”

Fifteenth Word*

As Father Chris reminded us, God loves everyone equally so I must think of the many people I am “not keen on” - God Loves them, so I must show love to them too. and welcome them unreservedly. We must also believe God loves us too. So many of us know we must show love to others but do we really believe God LOVES US unreservedly too. For many this is very difficult.

Sixteenth Word

God is good God is truth God is beauty praise Him

Seventeenth Word

This is in response to the earlier prophecy [Second Word above]. “Love me. Tell me you love me. Kiss me when others blaspheme. Smile at me as you pass by. Talk about me as your most treasured possession. Let my light shine through you.”

Eighteenth Word

True love is whole, even in suffering and brokenness. Jesus says “Trust in me, surrender to me, do not be afraid, just as I did everything my Father asked of me. Carry my light through you into the darkness of our world. I am with you ALWAYS - never forget this.”

Nineteenth Word

“Give to me your wounded heart, Give to me all your sorrows, Give to me everything that disturbs your spirit. I will transform the areas of brokenness in your life by my love.”

Twentieth Word

“See and look around when you doubt or falter, as all around nature struggles and fights to witness the Lord. He is always present. He wants your happiness with knowledge of him and to share this.”

Twenty first Word

“Be still , don't move, don't feel guilty staying here with me.”

Twenty second Word

God is telling me not to be afraid but to go deeper in His love that casts out all fear.
