And the best part is for only $43 during the week, ($52 weekends). Seniors play for $32 on weekdays and $35 on weekends. They also offer a replay rate of $20 on weekdays and $23 on weekends.

"We take great pride in our customer service and are dedicated to offering all levels of golfers a premium experience without the premium price attached," stated Matt Gotto, Edgewater's General Manager.

Edgewater Golf Club first opened for play in 2008. The course was designed by Bruce Brodsky with a completely secluded feel that tumbles across rolling hills covered with a blanket of matures trees. The terrain is as scenic as it is challenging, providing the layout with dramatic elevation changes and plenty of water including the beautiful Fishing Creek Lake.

In addition to the natural hazards, there are numerous strategically placed bunkers lurking along the greensides. An abundance of wildlife also calls the golf course home, so don't be surprised if you see deer or turkeys roaming the course.

If you want a demanding course, voted one of the toughest courses in the Charlotte area by the Charlotte Business Journal, it's there from the back tees.

The par-3 fourth hole features an island tee and asks players to hit a 230-yard, uphill shot over water to a green protected by a steep front.

The longest hole on the course is #5, a par-5 that plays to 570 yards. The shortest hole at Edgewater Golf Club is #8, a par-3 that plays to 173 yards from the back tees.

If you want something less than the back tees, Edgewater offers that, too. The course has five sets of tee stations. The greens are big and gently contoured, not overdone. Par for the course is 72. From the back tees the course plays to 7,103 yards. From the forward tees the course plays to 4,717 yards. Play forward and enjoy your round.
