

Oyster River Middle School in Durham, NH is now open.

Exciting news! After a productive year and a half of construction the new Oyster River Middle School in Durham, NH has opened, making way for the removal of the old school building and construction of the state of the art athletic field .

Civilworks New England is the site civil engineer responsible for site survey, permitting, design and construction phase services for an ADA compliant school. The site design includes , integrated low impact design (LID) stormwater management systems with infiltration, dedicated parent pickup and drop off lanes, teacher parking, dedicated bus lanes, delivery truck access, off site traffic improvements and parking, retaining walls and an all-purpose, all season synthetic athletic field.